

A BLOODY RIOT.

Five Thousand Russian Iron Workers Are in Revolt.

FIRED UPON BY THE CZAR'S TROOPS

And Many of the Rioters Are Killed, While Many of the Soldiers Are Shot and Stunned to Death—Leaders Arrested and Will be Dealt With in the Severest Manner—The Result of Low Wages and Nihilist Agitation.

BERLIN, Feb. 7.—A special dispatch to the Vossische Zeitung from Perm, Russia, says that a riot has taken place at the large iron works situated at Nizhne-Taghilek, in the Ural mountains, and that 5,000 workmen took part in the disturbances, which are attributed to low wages and the nihilistic propaganda. The local authorities were utterly unable to cope with the disturbance, and sent for a strong force of troops to quell the rioting. The soldiers were ordered to fire upon the rioters. A fierce conflict then followed, during which many of the rioters were killed and a number of soldiers were either shot or stunned to death.

The rioters finally made such a fierce attack upon the troops that the latter were repulsed and driven to seek shelter in a position which they fortified while awaiting assistance. An additional force of troops were summoned and the combined force of military moved upon the rioters and succeeded in driving them from the works and in quelling the disturbance, though many more were killed and wounded on both sides during this last engagement. The troops and police made a number of prisoners who, it is understood, will be dealt with in the severest manner. It is said that the nihilists are spreading their propaganda in a similar manner in many parts of Russia and that the authorities have been called upon to make the most energetic steps to arrest the nihilist agents.

TOO STRONG TO PRINT.

Emperor William Predicts War if the Russian Treaty is not Adopted.

BERLIN, Feb. 7.—The Associated Press learns from a leading national Press that who was present at Chancellor Von Capri's recent soiree, that the emperor's language in urging the necessity of the Russian treaty was too strong to be reproduced in the Berlin papers. According to the Associated Press correspondent's informant, the emperor said that if the treaty was not adopted Germany would have war with Russia before three months had passed. Russia, the emperor continued, was bent upon the treaty and the czar was identified with it, and they would not stand its rejection now that they regarded it as an inimical step upon the part of Germany.

LONDON, Feb. 7.—The seat of the earl of Feversham, Duncombe Park, Helmsley, Yorkshire, has been destroyed by fire.

The young duke of Leinster, his brothers, and Lady Ulrica, Duncombe were all asleep at Duncombe house at the time the fire broke out, but they were all hurriedly removed from the building, being snatched from their beds by servants and others who went to their rescue. Only a few valuables of the stores of art treasures which Duncombe house contained were saved.

There is some speculation as to what the nature of the report will be, but there is no indication of its general tenor except that the position of Senator Morgan was well known before the first publication of Secretary Gresham's letter to Mr. Cleveland outlining the policy which has since been carried out. ## HOWARD-TURNER VENDETTA

Renewed in Harlan County, Kentucky. Dr. William Nolin Killed Two of the Turners.

BARBOURVILLE, Ky., Feb. 7.—A desperate fight occurred at Mount Pleasant, in Harlan county, Monday night, in which Will and John Turner were killed instantly by Dr. William Nolin, a prominent physician of that city. The fight began in a barber shop on the court house square. Dr. Nolin walked into the shop and seeing John Turner told him he would kill him. Both men began firing. Turner fell dead. Nolin, by this time, had exhausted the loads in his pistol. Will Turner, an uncle of John, arrived and attacked Nolin. Neither had pistols, but used their knives. They had struggled over considerable ground, and when Turner swooned they were in the middle of the street. John Turner is a son of Judge George B. Turner, a prominent attorney. It was John Turner and his brothers who led the Turner side of the famous Howard-Turner feud in Harlan county a few years since. Willis Howard, the leader of the other side, was hanged in Missouri the 19th of last month. This trouble is thought by many to be a renewal of the old vendetta.

"Mr. Johnson, that is a fine horse you have there; what is he worth?"

"Three hundred and fifty dollars."

"No, not so much as that?"

"Yes, every cent of it, and another fifty on top of it."

"Are you sure?"

"Yes, I'll swear to it."

"All right."

"What are you so very inquisitive for?"

"Merely for assessing purposes. I am the assessor for this ward and only wanted to know what you rated your nag at."

"Oh, I see what you're driving at. Well, for the purpose of sale, he's worth every cent of it; but for taxation he's not worth more'n twenty-five dollars."
